Welcome to the 19th annual Studio-A-Rama, WRUW-FM's free summer rock concert. We bring you this event as a thank you for your donations to our annual radiothon. Studio-A-Rama is likely the most festive way to experience some of Cleveland's finest rock. The bands playing today were selected from an active gene puddle of over 50 submissions. We have styles ranging from punk to royalty rock for you today.

WRUW is dedicated to supporting the local music scene, be it through this event, on-air broadcasts or our upcoming Folk and International Festival that will be held on September 18. Not only is Studio-A-Rama simulcast live on 91.1 (and now on the Internet at http://radio.cwru.edu), but all of the performances are recorded to digital audio tape. Which is why WRUW has one of the largest collections of original live recordings on DAT.

Thanks for coming to our show. We know you won't be able to prevent you from rockin' out. However, it's entirely your responsibility to stand clear of embarrassing air-guitar solos. Remember, it's all about rock 'n' roll!

LARGEST SELECTION IN CLEVELAND SIZES 5-13

The Washouts Corp.

A newcomer onto the scene, the Washouts Corp. offer unto us their distinct brand of punk rock. Believe it! Don't make me come over there and spank you! They were a relative unknown to the WRUW staff, but with their qwirky sound, they made the grade. Sit back and relax or stand up and move while checking out one of Cleveland's newer offerings.

Contact the Washouts Corp.: (440) 988-7898.

The Secret Servix

These girls got rhythm. The Secret Servix are a four-piece fronted by three women rockers on guitars and bass with the lone man hitting the skins. They play punk with an attitude. Underestimate them and be crushed. Grab a drink and rock out or you'll be missing out.

Contact Secret Servix: (216) 651-3410.

The Plastics

The twisted child of several other Cleveland outfits, the Plastics are relentless and rhythmic. These three rockers – consisting of members from CHUMP, the Conservatives and Downside Special – play their own brand of "soft" rock and roll through over-driven amps. Do not fear repetition for it is your friend. The Plastics have been to the studio and have made a recording that is due out later this Fall on the City Of Romance label.

Contact the Plastics: (216) 579-1155.

The Chargers (Street Gang)

The Chargers will move you. Like some bastard spawns of Wayne/Jayne County and Wayne Kramer, the Chargers rock in the ways of the early seventies. Maybe it's garage rock and maybe it's punk rock, but it is definitely rock. Their music is powered by the true spirit of punk music's beginnings. Be prepared to feel the power of the Chargers and maybe they'll do a spirit-raising lengthy jam to bring it all to a climax. Get off your ass and join the fervor.

Contact the Chargers (street gang): (216) 268-3685.

ATTENTION SLACKERS!!!

Wanna see free shows at the Euc for doing next to nothing? We are looking for responsible hipsters to distribute flyers in the Parma, Coventry or Lakewood areas on a weekly basis. Must be 18 or older, own a car & wanna rock. For more info call Steve or Aaron at 216-229-0508

Nine Shocks Terror

It's hardcore dammit. Do I need to say it louder and faster? The large Cleveland hardcore scene has spawned another monster. Nine Shocks Terror are loud and... well, let's let them speak for themselves, a band that plays "eighties foreign-influenced thrashy, raunchy hardcore at ridiculous volume." Insert roller coaster pre-ride warning here. Okay buster, if you have any of those conditions you may just want to cover your ears and run. This precaution may also prevent damage to your psyche.

Contact 9 Shocks Terror: PO Box 561 Brunswick, OH. 44212-0561, or phone at (216) 521-9797.

Craw

One of the few bands that have endured while continuing to provide quality long enough to appear at Studio-A-Rama for a second time. What else can be said about these veterans of the Cleveland heavy-rock scene. They've been around almost eleven years. Long enough to have had a thousand reviews. Let's just say they are still kicking ass with their unique style. Craw is sometimes hardcore, sometimes metal, sometimes heavy indie-rock, and often something representing a mathematics nightmare. Listen closely or you'll miss something extremely important.

Contact Craw: (216) 579-9455 or find info at http://www.camb.net.

Chevelle

AKA: Three rockers that ROCK. Another concoction comprised of veteran Cleveland rockers. Chevelle is part structure and part improvisation. They lock onto a groove and bludgeon it through your ears until it resides in any one of the many underused areas in our primitive brains. Chevelle include Scott (hits stuff, holds onto his glasses), Lee (lets his bass speaks for him), Melvis (guitar center of the universe). Chevelle is Capka approved. Need we say more?

Contact Chevelle: (216) 441-6773.

What is Studio-A-Rama?

College radio is one of the few sources of support for airplay of local and regional original music in Cleveland. Due to the opportunity for exposure before a concert and radio audience, Studio-A-Rama is now recognized as a keen performance opportunity for local musicians. As an indication of the concert's popularity, each year's line-up is chosen from well over 50 bands.

WRUW-FM presents Studio-A-Rama to thank its listeners who donated to the station's annual on-air fundraiser and to show the station's commitment towards supporting local musicians and live music performance.

The concert is an expanded edition of "Live from Cleveland," the station's weekly hour-long live music program airing Thursdays at 10 PM. All "Live from Cleveland" and Studio-A-Rama performances are recorded to Digital Audio Tape (DAT) and then stored in our studio for airplay.

These recordings further support the bands in two ways: the DATs are incorporated into WRUW's daily programming, plus bands receive a copy of the DAT for whatever purposes they see fit.

WRUW has maintained strong support for the Cleveland music scene throughout its history. In 1991, the station created the weekly "Live from Studio A," ("Live from Cleveland's" predecessor), the now-defunct "Reel Live Music" (pre-taped), and the annual Studio-A-Rama summer concert.

Past performers include Unrest, Wreck, Naked Raygun, Death of Samantha, My Dad is Dead, the New Salem Witch Hunters, Prisonshake, Morsel, NRG Ensemble, Mule, DuValby Bros, Glazed Baby, U.S. Maple, Mount Shasta, New Bomb Turks and many more.

WRUW-FM 91.1 is located at 11220 Bellflower Rd., Cleveland, OH 44106. This 1999 Studio-A-Rama Program was scribed by Geeves McFadden. Cover art by Wonder Twin Powers, Deactivate. Quick-turnaround layout by Joe Banks. For more information on WRUW, please call (216) 368-2208. You can also find more info and listen to WRUW live on the Web at http://radio.cwru.edu. Studio-A-Rama is fully Y2K compliant.

The Upper Crust

Born of luxury yet burdened with the divine mandate to teach the rabble of rock. Deservedly privileged roquers of the highest order, the Upper Crust cause commoners by the thousands to pay homage at the Altar of Crust Roque. Guitarists Lord Bendover and Duc D'Istortion, bassist Count Bassie, and drummer Jackie Kickassis represent the purest and best of Royal Roque and Rule. The viewing/listening peasants and the indentured servants of WRUW shall thank the highest order for the opportunity to witness the Upper Crust royally roque.

Contact the Upper Crust: (617) 489-2146, or email at sfacrust99@aol.com.

Don't miss F/I '99!

Once you've got your roque off with Studio-A-Rama, be sure to check out WRUW's other yearly, live, all-day event, the Folk and International Festival, coming up on September 18. Not only will F/I '99 be held outside in the Mather Memorial courtyard, it will contain the same caliber of bands you see here today, but shifted a few colors to the left of the spiraling spectrum you've come to expect from WRUW.

We're serious. How many ways do we have to say thanks for your support? Stay tuned to WRUW-FM 91.1 for further details. You can also find more info at http://radio.cwru.edu/fi/. If you'd like to send a band submission for review, it must be received by August 15th. Send it to F/I 1999 c/o WRUW-FM, 11220 Bellflower Rd, Cleveland, OH 44106.
